ATHENE ANNOUNCES FIXED ANNUITY REINSURANCE TRANSACTION WITH JACKSON NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

PEMBROKE, Bermuda – June 18, 2020 – Athene Holding Ltd. (“Athene”) (NYSE: ATH), a leading provider of retirement savings products, has announced a fixed annuity block reinsurance transaction with Jackson National Life Insurance Company (“Jackson”), a leading provider of retirement products and subsidiary of Prudential plc (LSE: PRU), with the support of Athene Co-Invest Reinsurance Affiliate (“ACRA”). Under the terms of the agreement, Athene will reinsure a $27 billion<sup>1</sup> in-force block of fixed deferred and fixed indexed annuities. As part of the transaction, Athene is making a $500 million equity investment in Jackson, representing an 11% stake in the company, which will help Jackson to pursue various growth initiatives aligned with its commercial diversification strategy.

“We are very pleased to announce this mutually beneficial transaction with Jackson, which further validates our business model and demonstrates the continued execution of our inorganic growth strategy,” said Jim Belardi, CEO of Athene. “This compelling transaction enables us to grow our gross invested assets by approximately 20% with predictable liabilities we know well. The deal was underwritten to a return that is consistent with our target for inorganic growth, with upside achievable through portfolio redeployment above forecasted levels. Importantly, the deal exemplifies Athene’s ability to act as a preferred solutions provider because of our robust capital position, deep expertise in the retirement services industry, and our ability to close transactions that build long-term shareholder value.”

The transaction is expected to be accretive to Athene’s adjusted operating income in 2021 and 2022, with potential upside as portfolio redeployment occurs. Athene expects to deploy approximately $1.2 billion of total capital in connection with the transaction to be contributed over the next 12-18 months, including a further investment of capital in connection with portfolio redeployment, as well as the equity investment in Jackson. Utilizing the strategic benefits of ACRA, 63% of the total capital deployment will be funded by third-party investors, and 37% will be funded by Athene on a standalone basis. Pro forma for the transaction, as well as the company’s recent Series C preferred stock offering, Athene continues to have significant financial flexibility and a strong capital position, with excess equity capital of $3.0 billion and total deployable capital of $7.1 billion.

<sup>1</sup> Reflects aggregate ceded statutory reserves of approximately $26.7 billion. Under IFRS accounting, Prudential plc’s value of the transferred liability portfolio is $27.6 billion.

“We are delighted to be forging a new relationship with the team at Athene, given their deep expertise in the US annuity sector and long-term commitment to its development,” said Mike Wells, Group Chief Executive of Prudential plc. “Athene is a high-quality, well capitalised reinsurer and, in coordination with its strategic partner, Apollo Global Management, has structured an attractive transaction which we believe will benefit all parties. This new agreement is a key step forward in meeting our strategic objectives for Jackson.”

“Today’s transactions with Athene, a leading franchise in the retirement services market, further strengthen our capital position and enhance our ability to grow,” said Michael Falcon, Chief Executive Officer of Jackson Holdings LLC. “We value Athene’s investment in Jackson, which is aligned to our common goal of serving the growing population of American savers transitioning into and through retirement.”

Jackson will continue to service and administer the in-force policies within the block. The reinsurance agreement has an effective date of June 1, 2020. The equity investment in Jackson is expected to close in July 2020, subject to customary closing conditions and approvals. Credit Suisse is serving as financial advisor and Sidley Austin LLP is serving as legal counsel to Athene in connection with this transaction.

Athene has posted a supplemental presentation including additional transaction details located on its Investor Relations website at ir.athene.com.
