Exhibit I

Form of Custody Agreement

[See attached.]

CUSTODY AGREEMENT

This custody agreement (the "Agreement") dated as of October 1, 2013, is between U.S. BANK NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association organized under the laws of the United States of America, as Custodian (the "Custodian") and PRESIDENTIAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY—USA (the "Customer") an insurance company domiciled in the State of Iowa.

The parties agree as follows:

1. Appointment and Acceptance.

1.1 Customer hereby appoints Custodian as its agent to provide custody and other services in connection with securities, cash and other property delivered from time to time to Custodian hereunder by, or at the direction of, Customer, and income, distributions and payments received by Custodian with respect thereto (collectively the "Assets"); and Custodian hereby agrees to act in such capacity, and perform such services, and hold the Assets in a custody account established in the name of Customer (the "Account"), upon the terms and conditions set forth below.

1.2 For purposes of this Agreement, all references contained herein to actions, directions and responsibilities (other than the obligations set forth in Sections 12 and 14) of Customer shall include, apply to and be binding upon the Customer's agents, including any investment manager or advisor, appointed and authorized by Customer to direct Custodian or otherwise take actions on behalf of Customer in connection with Custodian's services and responsibilities hereunder. Customer shall provide written notice to Custodian of the identity of all such appointed agents and the scope of their authority to act hereunder.

1.3 In the event that Customer requires Custodian to establish one or more sub-accounts within the Account under this Agreement ("Sub-Accounts"), Custodian shall open such accounts pending proper account opening procedures. Further, for such situations, the term "Account" as used in this Agreement shall refer to one or all of the Sub-Accounts established by Customer, as the context of this Agreement shall require.

1.3.1 In no event shall Customer open Sub-Accounts for entities having different tax identification numbers than Customer.

2. Asset Delivery, Transfer, Custody and Safekeeping

2.1 Customer will from time to time deliver, or cause to be delivered, Assets to Custodian. Custodian shall receive and accept such Assets for the Account upon appropriate directions from the Customer. Custodian shall keep records of all transactions involving the Account and Assets belonging to the Account.

2.2 Upon receipt of Appropriate Instructions, (defined in Section 11.1) of either Customer or Aviva Life and Annuity Company ("Aviva"), Custodian shall return Assets to Customer, or deliver to such location or third party as Appropriate Instructions may indicate, provided that in connection therewith it is the sole responsibility of Customer or Aviva to provide any transfer documentation as may be required by the Depository (defined in Section 3.3 below) or third party recipient. Custodian shall have no power or authority to assign, hypothecate, pledge or otherwise dispose of any Assets, except as provided herein or pursuant to Appropriate Instructions.

2.3 Custodian shall furnish Customer and Commissioner, as part of the services for which Custodian charges its basic fee hereunder, with monthly Account statements reflecting all Asset transactions in the Account during the reporting period and ending Asset holdings. If Customer wishes Custodian to report on Assets that are not in control of the Custodian, Customer shall execute the Custodian's CLIENT CONTROL ADDENDUM, which shall be provided to the Customer upon request.

2.4 Custodian shall forward to Customer, or Customer's designated agent identified in Section 17.4 (or as identified in a separate written designation by Customer that is received by Custodian) all information it receives with respect to any of the Assets concerning redemption rights that are exercisable at Customer's option, tender or exchange offers, all proxy material it receives with respect to securities included among the Assets and all other special matters or shareholder rights. This Section 2.4 is subject to the following exceptions:

- 2.4.1 Exception: If Custodian receives a class action litigation proof of claim with respect to any of the Assets, Custodian shall file such claim on behalf of Customer.
- 2.4.2 Exception: Custodian will not forward so-called "mini-tenders" to Customer or its designated agent, as applicable. Mini-tenders are tender offers for a small amount of the outstanding securities of a "target" company, generally with an offer price at or below market value. For equity issues, unless a tender offer is made for 5% or greater of the outstanding securities, and is subject to Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") review, the tender offer will not be forwarded by Custodian.
- 2.4.3 Exception: No tender offer will be forwarded by Custodian for a debt issue if:
 - 2.4.3.1 It is not registered with the SEC;
 - 2.4.3.2 It has a "first received, first buy" basis with no withdrawal privilege and includes a guarantee of delivery clause; and
 - 2.4.3.3 The offer includes the statement that "the purchase price includes all accrued interest on the note and has been determined in the sole discretion of the buyer and may be more than or less than the fair market value of the notes" or similar language.

2.5 Absent specific investment directions to the contrary from Customer, Custodian is hereby authorized and directed by Customer to hold all cash and all checks and drafts (when collected funds are received) in a money market fund, identified in Section 17.5, below. Customer acknowledges receipt of the current prospectus for the applicable, designated money market fund to be held in the Account.

2.6 [Reserved]

2.7 If any of the Assets received and held by Custodian hereunder shall be plan assets ("Plan Assets") with respect to any employee benefit plan (a "Plan") as those terms are defined in Section 3 of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA"), the Custodian shall not be deemed to be, and shall not exercise any discretionary powers or control over such Plan Assets so as to be, a fiduciary with respect to the Plan. Furthermore, Customer shall notify Custodian in writing whenever any Assets do constitute Plan Assets and thereafter, all subcontracts, agreements or other arrangements between Custodian and any subsidiary or affiliate thereof for services or products paid for from any assets of the said Plan and utilized in the performance of Custodian's duties hereunder shall be subject to the advance approval of Customer.

3. Powers of Custodian. In the performance of its duties hereunder, Custodian shall have the following powers:

3.1 To register any of the Assets in the name of Customer or in the Custodian's name or in the name of a nominee of Custodian or in the name of the Custodian's agent bank or to hold any of the Assets in unregistered form or in such form as will pass title by delivery, provided that such Assets shall at all times be recorded in Customer's Account hereunder as belonging to the Customer. In consideration of Custodian's registration of any securities or other property in the name of Custodian or its nominee or agent, Customer agrees to pay on demand to Custodian or to Custodian's nominee or agent the amount of any loss or liability for stockholders' assessments, or otherwise, claimed or asserted against Custodian or Custodian's nominee or agent by reason of such registration.

3.2 To make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all documents of transfer and conveyance and any or all other instruments that may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the duties described and powers granted herein.

3.3 To maintain qualifying Assets in any registered clearing agency or in a Federal Reserve Bank (collectively a "Depository") as Custodian may select and to permit such deposited Assets to be registered in the name of Custodian, Custodian's agent or nominee or Depository, on the records of a Depository and to employ and use securities depositories, clearing agencies, clearance systems, sub-custodians or agents located outside the United States in connection with transactions involving foreign securities.

3.4 To employ agents and to delegate duties to them as it sees fit and to employ or consult with experts, advisors and legal counsel (who may be employed also by Customer) and to rely on information and advice received from such agents, experts, advisors, and legal counsel.

3.5 To perform any and all other ministerial acts deemed by Custodian necessary or appropriate to the proper discharge of its duties hereunder.

3.6 To hold uninvested reasonable amounts of cash whenever it is deemed advisable to do so to facilitate disbursements or for other operational reasons, and to deposit the same, with or without interest, in the commercial or savings departments of the Custodian serving hereunder or of any other bank, trust company or other financial institution including those affiliated with the Custodian, notwithstanding Custodian's or other entity's receipt of "float" from such uninvested cash.

4. Purchases.

4.1 Upon the receipt of Appropriate Instructions from Customer, Custodian shall purchase securities for Customer on an actual settlement basis. Customer hereby agrees that it shall not instruct Custodian to sell any Asset until such Asset has been fully paid for by Custodian. Nor shall Customer engage in a practice whereby Customer relies on the proceeds from the sale of an Asset to pay for the earlier purchase of the same Asset.

4.2 Unless Customer and Custodian have entered into a separate written agreement that expressly makes Custodian either an investment manager or a discretionary trustee, the Account statements described above (including their timing and form) will serve as the sole written notification to Customer of any securities transaction effected by Custodian for the Account. Even so, Customer has the right to demand that the Custodian provide written notification of such transactions pursuant to 12 CFR Sections 12.4(a) or (b) at no additional cost to Customer.

5. Sales.

5.1 Upon receipt of Appropriate Instructions from Customer, Custodian will deliver Assets held by it as Custodian hereunder and sold by or for Customer against payment to Custodian of the amount specified in such Appropriate Instructions in accordance with the then current securities industry practices and in form satisfactory to Custodian. Customer acknowledges that the current securities industry practice is delivery of physical securities against later payment on delivery date. Custodian agrees to use its best efforts to obtain payment therefor during the same business day, but Customer confirms its sole assumption of all risks of payment for such deliveries. Custodian may accept checks, whether certified or not, in payment for securities delivered on Customer's direction, and Customer assumes sole responsibility for the risks of collectability of such checks.

6. Settlements.

6.1 Custodian shall provide Customer with settlement of all purchases and sales of Assets in accordance with Custodian's then prevailing settlement policies provided that:

- 6.1.1 Appropriate Instructions for purchases and sales are received by Custodian in accordance with Custodian's then current published instruction deadline schedule;
- 6.1.2 Custodian has all other information necessary to complete the transaction.
- 6.1.3 To avoid a deficiency in the Account, Customer agrees that it shall not initiate any trade without sufficient Assets to settle such trade, nor shall it notify a separate financial institution that it intends to settle purchases out of the Account without sufficient Assets to do so.

6.2 Custodian shall not be liable or responsible for or on account of any act or omission of any broker or other agent designated by Customer to purchase or sell securities for the Account of Customer. Custodian shall not be responsible for loss occasioned by the acts, neglects, defaults or insolvency of any broker, bank, trust company or other person with whom Custodian may deal in the absence of bad faith on the part of Custodian.

7. Corporate Actions.

7.1 In connection with any mandatory conversion of Asset securities pursuant to their terms, reorganization, recapitalization, redemption in kind, consolidation or other exchange transaction that does not require or permit approval by the owner of the affected Assets, Custodian will tender or exchange securities held for other securities, for other securities and cash, or for cash alone.

8. Collections.

8.1 Custodian shall collect all income, principal and other distributions due and payable on Assets held either by Custodian or a Depository but shall be under no obligation or duty to take action to effect collection of any amount if the Assets upon which such payment is due are in default, or if payment is refused after due demand and presentation. Custodian shall have no responsibility to notify Customer in the event of such default or refusal to pay, but if Custodian receives notice of default or refusal to pay from an issuer or transfer agent, Custodian shall so advise Customer.

8.2 Collections of monies in foreign currency, to the extent possible, are to be converted into United States dollars at customary rates through customary banking channels, including Custodian's own banking facilities, and in accordance with Custodian's prevailing policies for foreign funds repatriation. All risk and expense incident to such foreign collection and conversion is the responsibility of the Account and Custodian shall have no responsibility for fluctuations in exchange rates affecting such collections or conversion.

9. No Discretionary Authority; Standard of Care.

9.1 Customer and Custodian acknowledge that, except to the extent set forth in any separate instrument signed by the parties with respect to this Agreement, Custodian is not a fiduciary with respect to any Asset and the duties of Custodian hereunder do not include discretionary authority, control or responsibility with respect to the management or disposition of any Asset; or authority or responsibility to render investment advice with respect to any Asset. In addition, it is agreed that:

- 9.1.1 Custodian shall have no duty to make any evaluation or to advise anyone of the suitability or propriety of action or proposed action of Customer in any particular transaction involving an Asset or the suitability or propriety of retaining any particular investment as an Asset. Custodian shall have no duty or authority to review, question, approve or make inquiries as to any investment instructions given pursuant hereto. Custodian shall be under no duty or obligation to review the securities or other property held in the Account with respect to prudence or diversification.
 - 9.1.2 Custodian shall not be liable for any loss or diminution of Assets by reason of investment experience or for its actions taken in reliance upon a direction or other instruction from Customer or Customer's agent.
 - 9.1.3 Custodian shall have no duty or responsibility to monitor or otherwise investigate the actions or omissions of Customer.
 - 9.1.4 Custodian shall have no responsibility for the accuracy of Asset valuations quoted by outside services or sources in cases involving assets under the control of Customer.
 - 9.1.5 Custodian shall only be responsible for the performance of such duties as are expressly set forth herein or in Appropriate Instructions received by Custodian from Customer or Customer's agent which are not contrary to the provisions of this Agreement. Custodian shall exercise reasonable care in the performance of its services hereunder. In no event shall Custodian be liable for indirect, special or consequential damages.
 - 9.1.6 Custodian shall not be liable for a failure to take an action required under this Agreement in the event and to the extent that the taking of the action is prevented or delayed by war (whether declared or not and including existing wars), revolutions, insurrection, riot, civil commotion, acts of God, accident, fire explosion, stoppage of labor, strikes or other differences with employees, laws regulations, orders or other acts of any governmental authority or any other cause beyond its reasonable control; nor shall any such failure or delay give Customer the right to terminate this Agreement, except as provided in Section 15 of this Agreement.

12.5 To secure such payment obligations as are set forth under this Section 12, Customer does hereby grant to Custodian a security interest in all Assets up to the amount of any deficiency or other indebtedness to the Custodian, subject to MAV.

12.6 None of the provisions of this Agreement shall require Custodian to expend or risk its own funds or otherwise to incur any liability, financial or otherwise, in the performance of any of its duties hereunder, or in the exercise of any of its rights or powers hereunder, if Custodian shall have reasonable grounds for believing that repayment of such funds, or indemnity satisfactory to Custodian against such risk or liability is not assured.

13. Customer Responsibility.

13.1 Customer shall be responsible for the review of all reports, accountings and other statements provided thereto by the Custodian, and shall within 90 days following receipt thereof notify the Custodian of any mistakes, defects or irregularities contained or identified therein, after which time all such matters shall be presumed to be ratified, approved and correct and shall not provide any basis for claim or liability against the Custodian.

14. Indemnification.

14.1 Customer hereby agrees to fully and promptly indemnify Custodian and its affiliates, officers, directors, employees and agents (each a "Custodian Indemnified Party") and hold each Custodian Indemnified Party harmless from and against any cost, losses, claims, liabilities, fines, penalties, damages and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' and other professionals' fees) (collectively, a "Claim") arising out of:

Custodian shall have no duty to question or investigate any direction received from Aviva or establish that Aviva is acting in compliance with the provisions of the Coinsurance Agreements or any other agreement when providing direction to Custodian. Custodian shall act upon any direction received by Aviva, without further inquiry, and shall be protected thereby.

(b) It is hereby acknowledged that the Assets are admitted assets under Iowa law and applicable statutory accounting principles. The Custodian has no responsibility or liability for the foregoing acknowledgment.

This Agreement and any administrative form under the Agreement may be proved either by a signed original or by a reproduced copy thereof (including, not by way of limitation, a microfiche copy or an electronic file copy).

17.13 Legal Actions Affecting Account. If Custodian is served with a subpoena, restraining order, writ of attachment or execution, levy, garnishment, search warrant or similar order relating to the Account, (a "Legal Action") Custodian will comply with that Legal Action and shall be held harmless therefrom. Customer will reimburse Custodian for any fees or expenses Custodian incurs in responding to any Legal Action affecting the Account (including but not limited to attorneys' fees and other professionals' fees), provided MAV is maintained at all times.

This Section 17.14 shall survive the termination of the Agreement.

18. Iowa State Specific Requirements.

18.1 Compliance with the Iowa Code. Customer represents and warrants that this Agreement complies with the custodial requirements imposed by Section 191 Chapter 32: Deposits By a Domestic Life Company in a Custodian Bank or Clearing Corporation promulgated under the Iowa Administrative Code, as amended from time to time, and Section 511.8 of the Iowa Code (collectively, the "Code"). To the extent that any terms required by the Code in this Article 18 are inconsistent with any other express terms of this Agreement, this Article 18 shall control. All other terms of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Custodian is only responsible for acting according to the terms of this Agreement and is not bound by the Code except as expressly stated herein.

18.2 Requirements upon Account and Agreement. Assets held under this Agreement may be used to meet the legal reserve deposit requirements of Iowa Code Section 511.8, subsection 16, and therefore the parties hereto agree as follows:

(a) That the Account is to be titled as follows: "Presidential Life Insurance Company – USA, Account No. [•] in custody for and to vest in the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Iowa in accordance with Iowa Code Sections 507C.18 and 5.08.19." Custodian may abbreviate such title in order to comply with its internal electronic record keeping system.

(b) That securities held in fungible bulk by the Custodian and securities in a clearing corporation or in the federal reserve book entry system shall be separately identified on the Custodian's official records as being owned by the Customer. The Custodian's records shall identify which Assets are held by the Custodian and which securities are in a clearing corporation or in the federal reserve book entry system. If the securities are in a clearing corporation, such records shall also identify the name of the clearing corporation, the location of the securities, and, if held through an agent, the name of the agent.

(c) That all Assets that are registered must be registered in the name of the Customer, in the name of a nominee of the Customer, in the name of the Custodian or its nominee, in the name of an agent of the Custodian or its nominee, or, if held in a clearing corporation, the name of the clearing corporation or its nominee. Customer covenants not to hold any Assets that are recorded in the Account that cannot be, or are not, registered according to this Section 18.2(c).

(d) During the course of the Custodian's regular business hours, the Commissioner of Insurance of the State of Iowa (the "Commissioner") or the Commissioner's representative and authorized employees and representatives of the Customer, shall be entitled to examine on the premises of the Custodian the Custodian's records related to the Assets.

(e) When requested in writing by the Commissioner, and at least once annually, Custodian or its agents shall submit to the Commissioner, at the address below (unless instructed by the Commissioner to use an alternative address), Custodian's SSAE 16, which is a report prepared by outside auditors on Custodian's systems of internal account control and recordkeeping.

Iowa Insurance Division
601 Locust St., 4th Floor
Des Moines, IA 50309-3738

(f) That the Custodian shall maintain records sufficient to determine and verify information relating to the Assets that may be reported in the Customer's annual statement and supporting schedules as filed with various regulatory authorities and in connection with any audit of the financial statements of the Customer. Copies of these records shall be delivered to the Commissioner upon written request to the Custodian.

(g) That the Custodian is obligated to indemnify the Customer for any loss of securities while in its custody occasioned by negligence or dishonesty of the Custodian's officers or employees, or burglary, robbery, holdup, theft, extortion, or mysterious disappearance, including loss by damage or destruction while in the possession of Custodian, but expressly excluding investment losses or other diminution of Assets resulting from Custodian's proper performance of its duties hereunder; provided that Custodian shall not indemnify Customer for any Claim arising from Customer's breach of this Agreement, willful misfeasance, bad faith, or negligence. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, in no event shall Custodian be liable for indirect, special, or consequential damages.

(h) That, in the event that there is a loss of the securities for which the Custodian is obligated to indemnify the Customer pursuant to Section 18.2(g) above, the Custodian shall promptly replace the same, or the value thereof, and the value of any loss of rights or privileges resulting from said loss of securities and the Custodian shall make available to the Customer for inspection any and all securities or value amounts so replaced.

(i) That the Customer shall ensure that minimum levels of deposits of securities at face values totaling $100,000 shall be maintained at all times.

(j) That this Agreement has been submitted by Customer to the Commissioner for the Commissioner's review prior to execution to ensure compliance with the Code. Custodian shall be provided evidence of Customer's submission to the Commissioner for review prior to execution of this Agreement.

(k) That this Agreement may be amended or terminated by Customer only with the prior approval of the Commissioner. Customer shall notify the Commissioner in writing if the Custodian gives notice that it intends to terminate this Agreement.

18.3 Requirements upon the Custodian. (a) The Custodian represents and warrants that (i) it is a national banking association with its principal place of business in the United States and (ii) it possesses and will continue to possess during the term of this Agreement, as applicable, the following qualifications:

(b) The Custodian shall be audited annually by independent public accountants whose audit report, together with the related financial statements, and opinion on internal controls shall be made available to the Customer and Commissioner upon written request. For the avoidance of doubt, the Custodian's annual audit report and financial statements (10K) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission shall fully satisfy the requirements of this paragraph.

(c) The securities held in the account are not deemed to be assets of Custodian, are kept separate and apart from the assets of Custodian, do not appear on Custodian's balance sheet, and are protected from claims made by Custodian's creditors. Cash credited to the Account is insured by the FDIC up to applicable FDIC limits.

(d) The Custodian maintains adequate insurance coverage relating to its custodial functions and upon request will provide evidence of such coverage to the Commissioner.

(e) The Custodian's capital and surplus funds shall at all times equal or exceed $25,000,000 and the Custodian shall at all times have assets in excess of $500,000,000, unless the Commissioner finds that the Custodian would possess the requisite stability and soundness to perform the custodial functions without detriment to Customer's or Beneficiary's policyholders.

18.4 Minimum Aggregate Value of Securities

(a) The Commissioner shall notify the Custodian, in writing, that a "Minimum Aggregate Value of Securities" (the "MAVOS") must be held in the custodial account at all times. The Commissioner's notice remains in full force and effect until amended or revoked in writing by the Commissioner. The Customer covenants to not request a withdrawal of cash or securities, if after such withdrawal the Account balance would be below the MAVOS.

(b) The Customer shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, certify to the Commissioner on a form provided by the Commissioner that the aggregate value (determined as provided by Iowa Code Section 511.8, subsection 17) of securities on deposit with the Commissioner in the manner specified by Iowa Code Sections 511.8, subsection 16, and in the Account as of the last day of the preceding month was at least equal to the Customer's legal reserve (as defined in Iowa Code Section 511.8) solely with respect to the Reinsured Liabilities (as defined in the Coinsurance Agreements) under the Coinsurance Agreements as of the last day of the preceding quarter.

(c) In the event that the Customer fails or refuses to make the certification provided in the preceding paragraph (b), or in the event the Commissioner is authorized or directed by reason of any determination, appointment or order pursuant to Iowa Code Sections 507C.18, 508.17, 508.18, or 508.22, the Commissioner may withdraw the Assets or transfer the Assets to a custody account with Custodian in Commissioner's name, and may order reregistration, delivery, or other disposition which the Commissioner deems appropriate under the circumstances; provided, that such reregistration, delivery, or other disposition shall be solely for the purposes of satisfying Customer's obligations under the Coinsurance Agreements.

(d) If the Commissioner has reason to believe that the Customer may be insolvent, or that its condition is such as to render its further continuance in business hazardous to the public or holders of the Reinsured Policies (as defined in the Coinsurance Agreements), or that continued trading by the Customer in the Assets may create a hazard to the public or holders of the Reinsured Policies (as defined in the Coinsurance Agreements), the Commissioner may order the Customer to cease trading in the Assets pending examination as provided in Iowa Code Section 508.16.

(e) Customer may from time to time deposit or withdraw cash or securities in the Account, subject to Customer's obligation to maintain the stated MAVOS on deposit.

(f) Custodian shall have no duty to question or investigate any direction received by Commissioner or establish that the Commissioner is acting in compliance with the provisions of Section 18.4 when providing direction to Custodian. Custodian shall act upon any direction received by the Commissioner, without further inquiry, and shall be protected thereby.

Section 19. Commercial Mortgage Loan Assets Any Commercial Mortgage Loan ("CML") assets held in the Account shall be subject to a services agreement ("Services Agreement") between Custodian and Customer. The Services Agreement shall provide direction to Custodian and shall describe Custodian's duties with respect to any CML asset held in the Account.

The Services Agreement shall be read into this Agreement with respect to CML assets, but shall not supersede or amend any term in this Agreement except with regard to Custodian's activities relating to CML assets. The Services Agreement shall not in any way diminish Customer's obligations to Commissioner or Aviva, or Custodian's obligations to Customer under this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their duly authorized representative effective as of the date first written above.

EXPLANATION OF THE REASON FOR THE TRANSFER

Athene was formerly a member of the Aviva plc ("Aviva") family of companies. Aviva continually evaluates its business to ensure that it is providing customers with the highest quality programs, products and services at the best price. After a thorough analysis, Aviva made the strategic decision to sell its U.S. annuity and life insurance business, including the company that issued your insurance coverage, to Athene Holding Ltd. Athene Holding Ltd. simultaneously sold the company's life insurance business to Accordia and changed the name of the company to Athene Annuity and Life Company.

Each Party, as reasonably requested by the other from time to time, shall take all reasonably appropriate actions and execute any reasonably necessary and appropriate additional documents, instruments or conveyances of any kind which may be reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this Section 2.9(a).

(b) The Parties intend that at all times prior to the termination of this Agreement that the Company's assignment pursuant to Section 2.9(a) be a present assignment of all of the Company's rights, title and interest and not an assignment as collateral. However, to the extent that such assignment is not recognized as a present assignment, is not valid or is recharacterized as a pledge rather than a lawful conveyance to the Reinsurer, the Company does hereby bargain, sell, convey, assign and otherwise pledge to the Reinsurer, and grant a first priority security interest to the Reinsurer in, all of the Company's right, title and interest (legal, equitable or otherwise), if any, to payments (i) under the Reinsured Policies of principal and interest paid on policy loans and (ii) of all Premiums, fees and other payments due or made on or after the Effective Date under the Reinsured Policies (collectively, the "Collateral") to secure all of the Company's obligations under this Agreement.

(c) This Section 2.9 is being included in this Agreement to ensure that, if an insolvency or other court determines that, notwithstanding the provisions of this Agreement, including Sections 2.1, 2.2, 2.3, 2.9, 6.2 and 13.1, and the intent of this Agreement, the Company retained ownership of or any rights in the Collateral, the Reinsurer's rights to the Collateral are protected with a first priority, perfected security interest, and it is the intent of the Parties that this Section 2.9 be interpreted as such.

(d) At or prior to the Effective Time, the Company shall file, and the Reinsurer is authorized to file, any and all financing statements reasonably requested by the Reinsurer in order to perfect the Reinsurer's right, title and interest under Article 9 of the UCC in and to the Collateral, and the Company shall do such further acts and things as the Reinsurer may reasonably request in order that the security interest granted hereunder may be maintained as a first priority perfected security interest; provided, that the Reinsurer shall be required to bear all out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) incurred by the Company in connection with any such action or other thing requested by the Reinsurer.

Section 2.10 Hedging.

Prior to the Hedge Termination Date:

(i) The Company shall purchase derivatives to hedge the index risk associated with the Equity Indexed Reinsured Policies (each, an EI Hedge" and collectively, the "EI Hedges"). The Company hereby conveys, transfers and assigns to the Reinsurer, effective as of the Effective Date, a 100% interest in the gross realized and unrealized capital gains and losses in respect of the EI Hedges purchased by the Company prior to or following the Effective Date, intended to hedge the index risk associated with the Reinsurer's Share of the Equity Indexed Reinsured Policies, each such EI Hedge purchased prior to the Amendment Date is set forth on Annex C hereto. Such assignment shall occur automatically, without further action on the part of either Party, upon the purchase by the Company of any EI Hedge or, in the case of any EI Hedges entered into prior to the Effective Date, as of the Effective Date. Following the Amendment Date, the Company shall no longer purchase, and, following the Hedge Termination Date, the Company shall no longer maintain any EI Hedges. EI Hedges assigned under this Section 2.10(a) will be accounted as funds withheld assets payable by the Company to the Reinsurer.

(ii) The Company shall pay to the Reinsurer an amount equal to any realized and unrealized capital gains (in accordance with SAP) associated with the EI Hedges in accordance with Section 6.2.

(iii) The Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an amount equal to any realized and unrealized capital losses (in accordance with SAP) associated with the EI Hedges in accordance with Section 6.2.

(iv) The Company shall use reasonable care in its hedging activities with respect to the Reinsured Policies, and such activities shall be consistent with the applicable standards set forth in the Transition Services Agreement. In addition, the Company shall not treat the EI Hedges in any respect in a manner that is different than the manner in which it treats the hedges it enters into with respect to equity indexed policies issued by the Company that are not Equity Indexed Reinsured Policies.

(v) The Company agrees that other than as provided expressly in this Agreement, it shall take any actions reasonably requested by the Reinsurer to maintain in full force and effect each of the EI Hedges and to perform fully each of its obligations thereunder. The Company may not modify, amend or terminate any EI Hedge or waive any of its rights under any such EI Hedge without the Reinsurer's prior written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) and shall fully enforce, at the expense of the Reinsurer, all of its rights thereunder, including, at the Reinsurer's request and if applicable, requiring the collateralization by the Hedge Counterparty of exposure and other amounts required to be paid or delivered thereunder. With the Reinsurer's prior written consent, the Company may exercise any right it may have to terminate any such EI Hedge and shall, at the Reinsurer's instruction and expense, effect any discretionary action with respect to the management or administration of the EI Hedges as the Reinsurer shall reasonably request, including termination, as may be available pursuant to the terms and conditions of any EI Hedge; provided, however, that the Reinsurer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company for Losses arising out of any such discretionary action so requested by the Reinsurer and the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Reinsurer for Losses to the extent arising out of any failure by the Company to take any such discretionary action as reasonably requested by the Reinsurer. The Company agrees that it shall, at the direction and at the cost and expense of the Reinsurer, pursue commercially reasonable management and collection efforts with respect to the EI Hedges and, in general, will reasonably cooperate with the Reinsurer in the management and administration of the EI Hedges.

(vi) Following the Effective Date, at the Reinsurer's request and expense, the Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer and use its reasonable best efforts in the context of current market conditions to novate any EI Hedges from the Company to the Reinsurer or a designated Affiliate of the Reinsurer. The Company shall promptly advise the Reinsurer of any communications with respect to any such proposed novation. All material, written correspondence from either the Company or the Reinsurer to any Hedge Counterparty in connection with any such proposed novation shall be in a form approved by the other Party; provided that any such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. At the Reinsurer's instruction and at the Reinsurer's cost and expense, the Company shall take any such action with respect to any such proposed novation as the Reinsurer shall reasonably request, including sending correspondence requesting that an EI Hedge be novated to the Reinsurer or a designated Affiliate of the Reinsurer in a form approved by the Reinsurer; provided, however, that the Reinsurer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company for Losses arising out of any such action so requested by the Reinsurer and the Company shall indemnify and hold harmless the Reinsurer for Losses to the extent arising out of any failure by the Company to take any such action as reasonably requested by the Reinsurer.

Section 2.11 Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve. Set forth on Schedule 2.11(a) is the Reinsurer's Share of the Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve attributable to the Reinsured Liabilities and set forth on Schedule 2.11(b) is the amount of the New Interest Maintenance Reserve. The entirety of such Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve and New Interest Maintenance Reserve shall be calculated by the Company and ceded to and held by the Reinsurer, and shall be amortized as set forth on Schedule 2.11. The Company shall have no obligation to establish any such Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve or New Interest Maintenance Reserve.

Section 2.12 New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve. Set forth on Schedule 2.12 is the amount of the New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve. The entirety of such New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve shall be calculated by the Company and ceded to and held by the Reinsurer, and shall be amortized as set forth on Schedule 2.12. The Company shall have no obligation to establish any such New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve.

Section 2.13 Cash Flow Testing Reserves. The Reinsurer will pay to the Company the Portfolio Yield on the Initial Cash Flow Testing Reserves as part of the Net Settlement pursuant to Section 6.2.

ARTICLE III REINSURANCE LIABILITY

Section 3.1 Reinsurance Liability. The reinsurance by the Reinsurer of the Reinsured Policies is subject to the same rates, conditions, limitations and restrictions as the insurance under the Reinsured Policies written by the Company on which the reinsurance is based. The liability of the Reinsurer hereunder on the terms described herein begins as of the Effective Time and, subject to Article X hereof, the liability of the Reinsurer on any Reinsured Policy will terminate as and when all liability of the Company with respect to such Reinsured Policy terminates.

Section 3.2 Other Reinsurance.

(a) The Company agrees that other than as provided expressly in this Agreement, it shall take any actions reasonably requested by the Reinsurer to maintain in full force and effect each of the Other Reinsurance Agreements and to perform fully each of its obligations thereunder. The Company may not modify, amend, terminate or recapture any Other Reinsurance Agreement or waive any of its rights under any such agreement without the Reinsurer's prior written consent and shall fully enforce, at the expense of the Reinsurer, all of its rights thereunder, including, at the Reinsurer's request, requiring the collateralization by the third party reinsurer of reserve balances and other amounts thereunder. With the Reinsurer's prior written consent, the Company may exercise any right it may have to recapture risks ceded under any of the Other Reinsurance Agreements or to otherwise terminate any such agreement and shall, at the Reinsurer's instruction and expense, effect any such action with respect to the management or administration of the Other Reinsurance as the Reinsurer shall reasonably request, including termination or recapture, as may be available under or with respect to the terms of any Other Reinsurance Agreement; provided, however, that the Reinsurer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company for Losses arising out of any such action so requested by the Reinsurer. Subject to the terms and conditions of the Administrative Services Agreement, the Company agrees that it shall, at the direction and at the cost and expense of the Reinsurer (including any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company), pursue commercially reasonable management and collection efforts with respect to the Other Reinsurance and, in general, will reasonably cooperate with the Reinsurer in the management of the Other Reinsurance.

(b) Following the Effective Date, at the Reinsurer's expense and reasonable request, the Company shall cooperate with the Reinsurer and shall use its reasonable best efforts in the context of current market conditions to novate any Other Reinsurance from the Company to the Reinsurer or a designated Affiliate of the Reinsurer. The Parties shall promptly advise each other of any communications with respect to any such proposed novation. All correspondence from either the Company or the Reinsurer to any reinsurer under Other Reinsurance in connection with any such proposed novation shall be in a form approved by the other Party; provided that any such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed. At the Reinsurer's instruction and at the Reinsurer's cost and expense (including any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company), the Company shall effect any such action with respect to any such proposed novation as the Reinsurer shall reasonably request, including sending correspondence requesting that an Other Reinsurance Agreement be novated to the Reinsurer or a designated Affiliate of the Reinsurer in a form approved by the Reinsurer; provided, however, that the Reinsurer shall indemnify and hold harmless the Company for Losses arising out of any such action so requested by the Reinsurer.

(c) The Company agrees that whenever an Other Reinsurance Agreement provides the Company with a right of set-off, the Company shall exercise such right of set-off in the event that amounts are due and unpaid from the Reinsurer. The Company shall have no obligation to pursue any claims it may have for indemnification to which it may be entitled in connection with the Other Reinsurance unless requested to do so by the Reinsurer and at the cost and expense of the Reinsurer (including reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Company). In no event shall any such right to indemnification reduce the Reinsurer's responsibility for the risk of all Other Reinsurance.

Section 3.3 Disclaimer. The Company has no duties, whether express or implied, including the duty of utmost good faith and other similar duties, which the Company expressly disclaims, and makes no representations or warranties to the Reinsurer, other than those expressly contained in this Agreement. The Reinsurer has no duties, whether express or implied, including the duty of utmost good faith and other similar duties, which the Reinsurer expressly disclaims, and makes no representations or warranties to the Company, other than those expressly contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV CERTAIN FINANCIAL PROVISIONS

Section 4.1 Provision of Security by the Reinsurer.

(a) On the Effective Date, the Reinsurer shall establish and fund with an amount of cash and assets having a Statutory Book Value equal to the Required Balance, calculated in good faith by the Reinsurer as of the Effective Date based on the information set forth in the statement delivered by the Company pursuant to Section 2.3(a)(ii), a trust account (the "Trust Account") with a Qualified United States Financial Institution unaffiliated with the Reinsurer and the Company and which is reasonably acceptable to the Reinsurer and the Company (the "Trustee") at the sole cost and expense of the Reinsurer naming the Company as sole beneficiary and shall enter into the Trust Agreement to provide security for the payment of amounts due the Company under this Agreement. The Reinsurer shall transfer or pay into the Trust Account, and shall thereafter maintain in the Trust Account, cash and assets managed by the Reinsurer or its designee in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Trust Agreement, having a Statutory Book Value, determined in good faith by the Reinsurer on a quarterly basis, to be not less than the Required Balance.

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, the term "Required Balance", as of any date of determination, means an amount equal to (i) (A) the Reinsurer's Share of the Statutory Reserves that would be required to be held by the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies (other than, prior to the Amendment Date, with respect to the Funds Withheld Liabilities) if this Agreement were not in effect, plus (B) the Reinsurer's Share of the Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve attributable to the Reinsured Liabilities (other than, prior to the Amendment Date, with respect to the Funds Withheld Liabilities), plus (C) the amount of any New Interest Maintenance Reserve, plus (D) following the Amendment Date, the amount of any New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve, less (E) the amount of outstanding policy loans on the Reinsured Policies (other than, prior to the Amendment Date, with respect to the Funds Withheld Liabilities) (to the extent such policy loans constitute admitted assets under SAP, net of any unearned policy loan interest on such loans but including amounts of interest due and accrued with respect thereto), less (F) the net due and deferred Premiums on the Reinsured Policies (other than, prior to the Amendment Date, with respect to the Funds Withheld Liabilities), less (G) following the Amendment Date and prior to the Hedge Termination Date, the aggregate Statutory Book Value of the EI Hedges, in each case, as of such date of determination and determined in accordance with SAP (to the extent SAP is applicable), consistently applied, plus (ii) the Trust OC Amount. The Required Balance and the Statutory Book Value of any assets held in the Trust Account shall be calculated by the Reinsurer as of the last day of each calendar quarter, and the Reinsurer shall provide a certification with respect to such valuation, including the Statutory Book Value and Fair Market Value of the assets (both on an asset-by-asset basis and a cumulative basis), to the Company and the Trustee within thirty (30) days after the end of such quarter. If the amount of cash plus the Statutory Book Value of assets held in the Trust Account as of any quarter end is less than the Required Balance as of such quarter end, the Reinsurer shall within five (5) Business Days after such determination is made make such further deposits to the Trust Account as are required in order to restore the Required Balance as of such quarter end. If the amount of cash plus the Statutory Book Value of assets held in the Trust Account as of any quarter end is greater than the Required Balance as of such quarter end, the Reinsurer may provide notice to the Company of its desire to withdraw assets from the Trust Account, specifying the amount and type of assets to be withdrawn. Within five (5) Business Days following its delivery of such notice to the Company, the Reinsurer may withdraw such assets from the Trust Account in excess of the amount necessary to maintain such Required Balance as of the applicable quarter end in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Trust Agreement. Any disputes by the Company of the amount of the Required Balance or the valuation of any asset deposited in the Trust Account pursuant to this Section 4.1 shall be resolved in accordance with Section 11.1. Upon resolution of any such dispute in accordance with Section 11.1, either (A) the Reinsurer shall cause to be deposited additional assets that comply with Section 4.1(a) within two (2) Business Days following such resolution, such that following any such deposit, the amount of cash plus the Statutory Book Value of the assets held in the Trust Account is sufficient to maintain the Required Balance as of the applicable quarter end; or (B) the Reinsurer may withdraw assets from the Trust Account in accordance with this Section 4.1(b), such that following any such withdrawal, the amount of cash plus the Statutory Book Value of the assets held in the Trust Account is sufficient to maintain the Required Balance as of the applicable quarter end. Unless otherwise agreed upon in writing by the Company, the Reinsurer shall maintain the Trust Account until all obligations of the Reinsurer under this Agreement have been fully satisfied, as determined by the Company in its sole discretion.

(c) The Company and the Reinsurer agree that the assets maintained in the Trust Account may be withdrawn by the Company only after a default by the Reinsurer in the performance of its monetary obligations hereunder that is not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith, which undisputed payment default has not been cured by the Reinsurer within five (5) Business Days following its receipt of a written notice thereof delivered by the Company. The amount of any such withdrawal in excess of amounts then due to Company hereunder shall be deemed maintained in trust for the benefit of the Reinsurer and promptly returned to the Trust Account. Upon prior written notice to the Company, the Reinsurer shall have the right to substitute or exchange assets maintained in the Trust Account in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Trust Agreement.

(d) With respect to the transfer of any Transferred Assets to the Trust Account, the Reinsurer will hold valid title to all such Transferred Assets free and clear of all liens or other encumbrances, other than interests of nominees, custodians or similar intermediaries. As of the date of the transfer of any assets to the Trust Account after the Effective Date, the Reinsurer will have good and marketable title to all such assets transferred by it to the Trust Account, all assets transferred by the Reinsurer after the Effective Date to the Trust Account shall be transferred free and clear of any liens other than interests of nominees, custodians or similar intermediaries, and the Reinsurer will not create, incur, assume or permit any lien or other encumbrance on any of the assets held in the Trust Account, or on any interest therein or on any of the proceeds thereof, other than interests of nominees, custodians or similar intermediaries.

(e) The Reinsurer shall notify the Company in writing of any payment default occurring as to any asset in the Trust Account promptly after the Reinsurer receives notice of such default. In the event the Reinsurer determines that a delinquency of a timely payment in regard to any of the assets in the Trust Account has occurred, the Reinsurer shall inform the Company of such delinquency promptly upon such determination.

(f) Assets in the Trust Account may be withdrawn and applied by the Company or any successor of the Company without diminution because of insolvency on the part of the Company or the Reinsurer only for the following purposes:

(i) to pay to the Company any amount due to be paid out of the Trust Account as part of the Reinsurer Termination Payment to the extent such amount is not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith;

(ii) to pay any portion of the Net Settlement due to be paid to the Company from the Trust Account in accordance with Section 6.2(b) to the extent such portion is not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith; or

(iii) to pay or reimburse the Company for any other amounts due but not yet recovered from the Reinsurer under this Agreement in order to satisfy liabilities under the Reinsured Policies (other than, prior to the Amendment Date, with respect to the Funds Withheld Liabilities) to the extent such amounts are not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith.

For the avoidance of doubt, any amounts referred to above that are not the subject of a good faith dispute may be withdrawn and applied for the purposes provided above.

Section 4.2 Credit for Reinsurance If at any time during the term of this Agreement, the Reinsurer fails to hold and maintain all licenses, permits and authorities required under Applicable Law to enable the Company to receive statutory reserve credit for the reinsurance ceded to the Reinsurer hereunder in the Company's state of domicile, the Reinsurer shall, at its sole expense, establish and maintain security in the form of letters of credit, assets held in a reinsurance trust, funds withheld or a combination thereof in a manner that meets all Applicable Laws regarding credit for reinsurance, so as to permit the Company to receive full statutory reserve credit for the reinsurance ceded to the Reinsurer hereunder in the Company's state of domicile. The form of such letter of credit, trust agreement for such reinsurance trust or any funds withheld arrangement shall be approved by the New York Department of Financial Services prior to use.

Section 4.3 RBC Reports

(a) Within forty-five (45) days following the end of the first three calendar quarters of each year during the term of this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall provide to the Company a report of its RBC Ratio as of the end of such calendar quarter, as estimated in good faith by the Reinsurer.

(b) Within five (5) Business Days of the submission by the Reinsurer to the insurance department of its domiciliary state of a report of its risk-based capital levels as of the end of the previous calendar year, but in no event later than sixty (60) days following the end of each calendar year, the Reinsurer shall provide to the Company written certification of its RBC Ratio as of the end of such calendar year.

Section 4.4 Funds Withheld Account

(a) On or prior to the Effective Date, the Company shall establish on its books and records a funds withheld account (the "Funds Withheld Account") and allocate thereto the Initial Funds Withheld Assets with a Statutory Book Value equal to the Initial Funds Withheld Amount and, until the Amendment Date, shall maintain the Funds Withheld Account with assets having a Statutory Book Value equal to the Funds Withheld Account Amount determined from time to time in accordance with this Agreement (the Initial Funds Withheld Assets and any other assets allocated to the Funds Withheld Account pursuant to this Agreement, the "Funds Withheld Assets"). The Funds Withheld Account shall be a segregated account established by the Company. Until the Amendment Date, the Company will retain, control and own all Funds Withheld Assets. Until the Hedge Termination Date, the Company shall record the Funds Withheld Account Balance on its statutory financial statements as a payable to the Reinsurer. Following the Hedge Termination Date, the Company shall no longer maintain the Funds Withheld Account.

(b) Prior to the Amendment Date, the Funds Withheld Assets (other than the policy loans), and, following the Amendment Date but prior to the Hedge Termination Date, the EI Hedge assets held in the Funds Withheld Account (other than the policy loans) shall be invested by the Reinsurer or by Goldman Sachs Asset Management or such other investment manager appointed by the Reinsurer with the prior written consent of the Company pursuant to an investment management agreement. The Reinsurer, Goldman Sachs Asset Management or such other investment manager appointed by the Reinsurer with the prior written consent of the Company shall have the authority to purchase EI Hedges on the account of the Company commencing (1) year following the Effective Date. For greater certainty, prior to the Amendment Date, (i) each policy loan repaid and interest payment on a policy loan shall be accounted for as a cash transfer to the Funds Withheld Account from the policyholder in an amount equal to such policy loan repayment or interest payment (and shall result in an allocation by the Company to the Funds Withheld Account of cash, assets or a combination of cash and assets, with an aggregate Statutory Book Value equal to such policy loan repayment or interest payment), and (ii) each policy loan taken by a policyholder shall be accounted for as a cash transfer from the Funds Withheld Account to such policyholder (and shall result in cash, assets or a combination of cash and assets, with an aggregate Statutory Book Value equal to the proceeds of such policy loan no longer being allocated by the Company to the Funds Withheld Account) and the Company shall establish a Funds Withheld Asset in an amount equal to the outstanding balance of such policy loan and any accrued but unpaid interest thereon.

(c) Assets in the Funds Withheld Account may be withdrawn and applied by the Company or any successor of the Company without diminution because of insolvency on the part of the Company or the Reinsurer only for the following purposes:

- (i) to pay to the Company any amount due to be paid out of the Funds Withheld Account as part of the Reinsurer Termination Payment to the extent such amount is not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith;
- (ii) to pay any portion of the Net Settlement due to be paid to the Company in accordance with Sections 6.2(b) and 6.2(c) to the extent such portion is not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith, and any portion thereof that is due to be paid to the Reinsurer to the extent such portion is not being disputed by the Company in good faith;
- (iii) to pay to the Reinsurer amounts remaining in the Funds Withheld Account, if any, after the payment of any amounts due to be paid out of the Funds Withheld Account as part of the Reinsurer Termination Payment to the extent such amount is not being disputed by the Company in good faith; or
- (iv) to pay or reimburse the Company for any other amounts due but not yet recovered from the Reinsurer under this Agreement in order to satisfy Funds Withheld Liabilities to the extent such amounts are not being disputed by the Reinsurer in good faith.

For the avoidance of doubt, (i) any amounts referred to above that are not the subject of a good faith dispute may be withdrawn and applied for the purposes provided above and (ii) payments to policyholders shall not be delayed due to any good faith disputes by the Company or the Reinsurer under this Section 4.4(c).

(d) If assets are withdrawn from the Funds Withheld Account and are not immediately applied for the purposes set forth in Section 4.4(c) above, the assets improperly withdrawn from the Funds Withheld Account by the Company shall be immediately returned to the Funds Withheld Account. Until such assets are returned to the Funds Withheld Account, such assets shall be held in trust by the Company separate and apart from any other assets of the Company. The Company shall pay to the Funds Withheld Account interest on the amount of any such improperly withdrawn assets at the Applicable Rate from the date of withdrawal to the date such assets are returned to the Funds Withheld Account or paid to the Reinsurer, as applicable (the "Excess FWA Draw Interest Amount"). Such interest shall accrue monthly and shall be paid on the Business Day following the last day of each Monthly Accounting Period. The balance of the amount held or required to be so held separate and apart as of any date of determination shall be an amount (the "Excess FWA Draw Amount") equal to (i) the Statutory Book Value of assets withdrawn from the Funds Withheld Account in excess of amounts required for the purposes described in Section 4.4(c) above minus any amounts applied by the Company therefrom for such permissible purposes plus (ii) the Excess FWA Draw Interest Amount (whether or not payable as of such date of determination).

ARTICLE V PLAN OF REINSURANCE

Section 5.1 Plan. Reinsurance under this Agreement is on a 100% coinsurance basis and is subject to the terms and conditions of the original policy forms for the Reinsured Policies and any amendments thereto in effect as of the Effective Date.

Section 5.2 Follow the Fortunes. The Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement shall commence on the Effective Date, and all reinsurance with respect to which the Reinsurer shall be liable by virtue of this Agreement shall be subject in all respects to the same risks, terms, rates, conditions, interpretations, assessments, waivers, proportion of premiums paid to, and reinsurance recoveries benefiting, the Company with respect to the Reinsured Liabilities and the Reinsured Policies, the true intent of this Agreement being that the Reinsurer shall follow the fortunes of the Company with respect to the Reinsured Liabilities and Reinsured Policies.

Section 5.3 Reductions and Terminations. Reinsurance amounts are calculated in terms of coverages on a "per policy" basis. If the coverage of any Reinsured Policy on an insured is reduced or terminated, reinsurance under this Agreement on such Reinsured Policy will be equally reduced or terminated.

Section 5.4 Reinstatements. Reinsured Policies ceded under this Agreement shall include any Policy that is reduced, terminated, lapsed or surrendered, and later reinstated pursuant to and in accordance with its policy provisions and will be reinsured by the Reinsurer in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. The Reinsurer will retain any Premiums and interest that the Company has received for reinstatement in respect of periods on or after the Effective Date. A terminated Policy that would have been a Reinsured Policy had it been in force at the Effective Time, that later reinstates pursuant to and in accordance with its policy provisions, will be reinsured by the Reinsurer and become a Reinsured Policy. The Reinsurer will be entitled to retain any Premiums and interest for coverage on or after the Effective Date that is received for such reinstatement, and the Company will transfer to the Reinsurer the amount of reserves for such reinstated Reinsured Policy as of the Effective Date, calculated in a manner that is consistent with the reserve calculations used for the other Reinsured Policies. The date of reinsurance for such reinstated Reinsured Policies shall be the Effective Date. For the avoidance of doubt, the reinstated Policies reinsured under this Section 5.4 shall include any Policy treated as lapsed or otherwise terminated prior to the Effective Time under which the Company subsequently becomes liable as a result of a determination that the policyowner, insured or beneficiary has died prior to the lapse or termination.

Section 5.5 Contractual Conversions; Internal Replacement; Annuitizations.

(a) Any conversion, exchange or replacement policy or contract arising from the Reinsured Policies that is converted, exchanged or replaced pursuant to and in accordance with its policy terms shall be deemed to constitute a Reinsured Policy for purposes of this Agreement and, in the event of a conversion, exchange or replacement of any Reinsured Policy, the Reinsurer shall reinsure the risk resulting from such conversion on the basis set forth hereby with respect to the Reinsured Policies; provided, however, that the Reinsurer shall not be required to pay any ceding commission with respect to any such converted, exchanged or replacement policy or contract. The Reinsurer will reimburse the Company for any expenses incurred in issuing a converted, exchanged or replacement policy or contract, but only to the extent such expenses are not covered by payments made by the Reinsurer under the Transition Services Agreement.

(b) Absent the Reinsurer's prior written consent (which may be withheld in its sole discretion), the Company will not solicit owners, beneficiaries or policyholders in connection with, or sponsor or assist, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of, (and will cause each of its Affiliates to refrain from soliciting in connection with, and sponsoring or assisting, directly or indirectly, in the conduct of) any program of internal replacement under which the owners, beneficiaries or policyholders of Reinsured Policies are or would be encouraged to exchange, or assisted in the exchange of, Reinsured Policies for other insurance policies or contracts that are not reinsured under this Agreement. Should the Company or its Affiliates or any of their respective successors or assigns initiate such a program of internal replacement that would include any of the risks reinsured hereunder in violation of the preceding sentence, the Company will immediately notify the Reinsurer. For each risk reinsured hereunder that has been replaced under a program of internal replacement, the Reinsurer shall have the option, at its sole discretion, of either treating the risks reinsured as recaptured on terms reasonably acceptable to the Reinsurer or continuing reinsurance on the new policy under the terms of this Agreement without any ceding commission therefor.

(c) Until the earlier of (i) such time as the Reinsurer is able to administer the Reinsured Policies on its information technology systems or (ii) the expiration of the Transition Services Agreement (the "Systems Conversion"), in the event that a Reinsured Policy is annuitized in full under the contract provisions of such policy (each an "Annuitization"), the Company shall convert such Reinsured Policy to one or more Supplementary Contracts. At the time of such conversion, the Reinsurer shall pay to the Company an amount equal to the policy surrender value of such Reinsured Policy as of the time of the conversion (an "Annuitization Payment") as part of the Net Settlement. Upon the Annuitization of a Reinsured Policy, the Policy and any associated Supplementary Contracts, comprising such Reinsured Policy shall cease to be a Reinsured Policy under this Agreement, and, with the exception of the Annuitization Payment described in this Section 5.5(c) the Reinsurer will have no further liability with respect to such Policy or any associated Supplementary Contracts. For the avoidance of doubt, any Reinsured Policies that undergo an Annuitization following the Systems Conversion will remain Reinsured Policies and the Reinsurer will reinsure any Supplementary Contracts issued with respect to such Reinsured Policies.

Section 5.6 New Policies. From and after the Effective Date, the Company shall issue in its name (a) new Policies issued or reinstated pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5(a) and (b) new Policies issued or renewed in accordance the terms of the Administrative Services Agreement.

Section 5.7 Policy List Errors

(a) The Company or the Reinsurer, as applicable, shall notify the other Party if any life insurance policies or contracts issued or reinsured by the Company and in force as of the Effective Date were inadvertently not included on the Policy List and are determined to be a Policy, which shall in no event include any insurance policies and contracts falling within the following lines of business: health, annuities, funding agreements, corporate-owned life insurance and bank-owned life insurance when sold on a group basis, synthetic guaranteed investment contracts and variable life or other variable business.

(b) If any policies or contracts (or components thereof) are determined to be Policies in accordance with this Section 5.7, then the Company shall transfer cash or assets reasonably satisfactory to the Reinsurer in an amount equal to the Statutory Reserves required to be held with respect to such Policies to the extent such Statutory Reserves were not previously transferred to the Reinsurer.

Section 5.8 Renewal Commissions. Any renewal commissions due following the Effective Date will be the responsibility of the Reinsurer and shall be paid by the Reinsurer to the Company as part of the Net Settlement pursuant to Section 6.2.

ARTICLE VI
ADMINISTRATION

Section 6.1 Administrative Services.

(a) The Parties hereby agree that the Policies, Other Reinsurance Agreements and, subject to Section 2.10, the EI Hedges shall be administered in accordance with or as otherwise provided in the Administrative Services Agreement and the Transition Services Agreement. The administration of the Policies, Other Reinsurance Agreements and EI Hedges shall be at the sole cost and expense of the Reinsurer.

(b) In the event that the Reinsurer is unable to administer the Policies, Other Reinsurance Agreements and EI Hedges as provided in Section 6.1(a), the Reinsurer shall remain obligated for the costs and expenses of any replacement party providing such administration and the Reinsurer shall reimburse the Company for any such costs and expenses as part of the Net Settlement pursuant to Section 6.2.

Section 6.2 Net Settlements.

(a) For each Monthly Accounting Period, the Parties will effect a settlement on a net basis (the "Net Settlement") as contemplated in, prior to the Amendment Date, Annex B, and on or after the Amendment Date, Annex I, hereto.

(b) A report reflecting in detail the Net Settlement determinations contemplated in, prior to the Amendment Date Annex B, and on or after the Amendment Date, Annex I, shall be prepared not later than thirty (30) calendar days after the end of each Monthly Accounting Period. For as long as required under the Transition Services Agreement, the Company shall prepare and deliver such report to the Reinsurer. After such time, the Reinsurer shall prepare and deliver such report to the Company. If a Net Settlement report reflects a balance due to the Company, the amount(s) shown as due shall be paid within ten (10) Business Days of the delivery of the report. If a Net Settlement report reflects a balance due to the Reinsurer, the amount(s) shown as due shall be paid within ten (10) Business Days after the date on which the report was delivered. If there is a delayed settlement of any payment due hereunder, interest will accrue on such payment at the Applicable Rate. For purposes of this section, a payment will be considered overdue on the date which is ten (10) Business Days after the date such payment is due hereunder; provided that such interest will begin to accrue from the original due date with respect to such payment. All settlements of account between the Company and the Reinsurer shall be made in cash or its equivalent.

(c) To the extent that the Reinsurer makes any direct payments to or on behalf of the Company in respect of Reinsured Liabilities or other amounts payable to the Company pursuant to the Net Settlement in respect of a Monthly Accounting Period prior to the Net Settlement process, whether in its capacity as the Administrator or otherwise, the amount of any such payments shall be taken into account for purposes of determining the Net Settlement. In addition, to the extent the Reinsurer receives any Premiums or other amounts payable to the Reinsurer pursuant to the Net Settlement in respect of a Monthly Accounting Period prior to the Net Settlement process, whether in its capacity as the Administrator or otherwise, the amount of any such Premiums received shall be taken into account for purposes of determining the Net Settlement.

(d) Prior to the Amendment Date, the Net Settlement report delivered in respect of each Monthly Accounting Period shall include an adjustment to the Funds Withheld Account Balance (each, a "Funds Withheld Account Adjustment"). The Funds Withheld Account Adjustment shall be calculated as an amount equal to (i) minus (ii) minus (iii), where:

(i) equals the Funds Withheld Account Amount as of the last day of the Monthly Accounting Period to which the then current Net Settlement report relates;
and

(ii) equals the Funds Withheld Account Amount at the end of the immediately preceding Monthly Accounting Period, and

(iii) equals the Investment Income earned during the period from but excluding the last day of the immediately preceding Monthly Accounting Period to and including the last day of the Monthly Accounting Period to which the then current Net Settlement report relates.

(e) If the Funds Withheld Account Adjustment for any Monthly Accounting Period is positive, then the Reinsurer shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the Funds Withheld Account Adjustment in accordance with Section 6.2(b). If the Funds Withheld Account Adjustment for any Monthly Accounting Period is negative, then the Company shall remit to the Reinsurer an amount equal to the absolute value of the Funds Withheld Account Adjustment in accordance with Section 6.2(b). For purposes of calculating the Funds Withheld Account Adjustment for the first Monthly Accounting Period after the Effective Time, clause (iii) of Section 6.2(d) shall include only Investment Income earned since the Effective Time.

(f) In connection with any settlement under this Agreement, the Reinsurer shall not be obligated to pay any Excluded Reinsured Liability.

(g) Prior to the Hedge Termination Date, the Net Settlement report delivered in respect of each Accounting Period shall include an adjustment equal to the Assigned EI Hedge Proceeds Amounts, minus the Assigned EI Hedge Cost Amounts. If the adjustment for any Accounting Period is positive, then the Company shall remit to the Reinsurer an amount equal to the adjustment in accordance with this Section 6.2(b). If the adjustment for any Accounting Period is negative, then the Reinsurer shall remit to the Company an amount equal to the absolute value of the adjustment in accordance with this Section 6.2(b).

ARTICLE VII OPTION LETTERS; ASSUMPTION CERTIFICATES; NOVATION

Section 7.1 Novation. The Reinsurer shall pursue novation of all of the Reinsured Policies other than any Reinsured Policies that are the subject of litigation or arbitration proceedings (the "Targeted Policies"). The Reinsurer may manage the novation process so as to ensure that the Targeted Policies are novated to the Reinsurer only once the requisite systems are in place in order to reflect the Novated Contracts on the books and records of the Reinsurer in accordance with the migration processes and related time periods contemplated by the Transition Services Agreement.

Section 7.2 Licenses; Regulatory Approvals for Novation.

(a) Following the Effective Date, the Reinsurer shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all material licenses, permits and authorizations required under Applicable Law to qualify the Reinsurer to transact life insurance business in each state where any Targeted Policies are in force as of the Effective Date.

(b) Following the Effective Date, the Reinsurer shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all required regulatory approvals, including approval of the requisite form and rate filings, from each applicable Governmental Entity to assume by novation such Targeted Policies (effective as of their inception) including all of the Company's liabilities and obligations under each such Targeted Policy, in order to ensure that such liabilities and obligations are solely, directly and exclusively vested in the Reinsurer.

(c) Each Party shall cooperate fully with the other in all reasonable respects in order to effectuate the novation and assumption of the Targeted Policies as set forth in this Article VII. The Reinsurer shall be responsible for and shall pay its own costs, fees and expenses relating to the regulatory filings contemplated under this Section 7.2, and shall reimburse the Company for any reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that it incurs in connection with such filings.

Section 7.3 Option Letter.

(a) Subject to Section 7.3(b), the Reinsurer, at its sole cost and expense, promptly following receipt of the requisite approvals of applicable Governmental Entities, shall transmit by mail to every Required Party as required by the Applicable Law and in accordance with the consent solicitation procedures set forth on Schedule 7.3(a), an option letter (the "Option Letter"), together with a Notice and Certificate of Assumption, including, where required, a form for rejection or acceptance, as permitted by Applicable Law, and a self-addressed return envelope, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit II (which identifies and includes the forms of Option Letters to be furnished to the various classes of Required Parties), as modified to reflect such changes as may be required by the relevant Governmental Entity following the Effective Date (the "Notice and Certificate of Assumption"). Option Letters and Notices and Certificates of Assumption shall not be sent with respect to a Targeted Policy unless and until all requisite approvals of applicable Governmental Entities have been received with respect to such Targeted Policy.

(b) Subject to the receipt of the requisite regulatory approvals and Applicable Law, the Reinsurer may, at its option, in lieu of transmission of an Option Letter to a Required Party by mail, effect such transmission by any other method allowed under Applicable Law.

(c) The Reinsurer and the Company shall in good faith agree to modify the procedures set forth in this Section 7.3 and in Schedule 7.3(a) on a state-by-state basis to the extent required to conform to any procedures for novation and assumption of Targeted Policies imposed or required by the applicable Governmental Entity or as reasonably requested by the Reinsurer.

(d) Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, with respect to the classes of Required Parties described on Schedule 7.3(d), the Option Letter, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, may be accompanied by a form for rejection, and a self-addressed return envelope, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit III, and the Reinsurer shall not be required to seek affirmative consent from such Required Parties, unless required by Applicable Law.

(e) The Reinsurer shall pay its own costs, fees and expenses relating to soliciting or obtaining the consent of a Required Party to the novation and assumption by the Reinsurer of a Targeted Policy. The Company shall cooperate in any such actions taken by the Reinsurer, and the Reinsurer shall reimburse the Company for its reasonable out-of-pocket costs incurred in connection with such cooperation.

Section 7.4 Novated Contracts. Targeted Policies satisfying all of the requirements for novation and assumption under Section 7.3 and Applicable Law shall be assumed by the Reinsurer on the applicable Assumption Date and shall be deemed to have been assumed by novation. Such contracts shall cease to be deemed "Reinsured Policies," shall thenceforth not be deemed indemnity coinsured under Article II hereof, and shall be defined herein as "Novated Contracts." Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that (a) a Required Party rejects or fails to provide any consent required by Applicable Law to the novation of a Reinsured Policy, or (b) a Novated Contract is determined by appropriate Governmental Entities or a court of competent jurisdiction to be not novated from the Company to the Reinsurer (including, but not limited to, jurisdictions requiring the insured's affirmative consent for novation where the insured or policyholder, as the case may be, either did not or refused to provide such consent), then in the case of either of (a) or (b), such Novated Contract shall for all purposes of this Agreement be deemed, retroactive to the Effective Date, to be a Reinsured Policy and such novation shall be null and void and of no effect. For the avoidance of doubt, the Reinsured Liabilities for each such Novated Contract that is deemed to be a Reinsured Policy in accordance with the foregoing shall be deemed assumed by the Reinsurer retroactive to the Effective Date for all purposes of this Agreement. For each Novated Contract, the date of assumption shall be the later of (i) the date of assumption set forth in the relevant form of Option Letter with respect to the applicable Targeted Policy or (ii) the date on which all required consents and approvals of all Governmental Entities and Required Parties with respect to the applicable Targeted Policy have actually been received and all other requirements and conditions for novation and assumption have been satisfied (the "Assumption Date"). All Targeted Policies not novated by the Reinsurer shall remain Reinsured Policies of the Company.

Section 7.5 Effect of Assumption. Upon the satisfaction of all requirements for the novation and assumption of a Targeted Policy, the Company shall be deemed to have assigned and transferred all of its rights relating to such Novated Contract as of the Assumption Date and the Reinsurer shall be deemed to have assumed and accepted all of the risks, liabilities and obligations (including, without limitation, any Extra Contractual Obligations) under or arising out of the applicable Novated Contract, whether arising prior, on or subsequent to the applicable Assumption Date. The Reinsurer hereby agrees that it shall be directly and solely liable for such risks, liabilities and obligations. On each Assumption Date, the Reinsurer shall assume all risks, liabilities and obligations under or arising out of the applicable Novated Contract such that the Reinsurer shall be considered and deemed the original party in lieu of the Company, from the inception date of the applicable Reinsured Policy. The Novated Contracts shall continue and remain in full force and effect, except as modified by the Notice and Certificate of Assumption. For the avoidance of doubt, a Novated Contract shall not constitute the creation of a new contract or the termination of the applicable Reinsured Policy, rather such Novated Contract shall be considered and deemed a continuation of the existing contract as if the Reinsurer were the original party in lieu of the Company. It is understood and agreed that such assignment, transfer and assumption shall not affect any indemnification rights of the parties pursuant to Article XII.

or any other indemnification or right to recovery provided to a party under any other agreement. Pursuant to the terms of the Trust Agreement, the portion of the assets held in the Trust Account relating to Novated Contracts not in dispute shall be released from the Trust Account and transferred to the Reinsurer. Promptly after assumption by the Reinsurer of any Novated Contracts, the Company shall deliver original books and records that relate to such Novated Contracts to the Reinsurer to the extent required by Applicable Law.

ARTICLE VIII
DAC TAX

Section 8.1 DAC Tax Election. The Company and the Reinsurer hereby elect and agree under Treasury Regulations Section 1.848-2(g)(8) as follows:

- (a) The Company and the Reinsurer will each attach a schedule to its federal income tax return for the first taxable year ending after the Effective Date that identifies this Agreement as a reinsurance agreement for which a joint election under Treasury Regulation Section 1.848-2(g)(8) has been made, and will otherwise file its respective federal income tax returns in a manner consistent with the provisions of Treasury Regulation Section 1.848-2 as in effect on the date this Agreement is executed;
- (b) For each taxable year under this Agreement, the Party with the net positive consideration, as defined in the regulations promulgated under Section 848 of the Code, will capitalize specified policy acquisition expenses with respect to this Agreement without regard to the general deductions limitation of Section 848(c)(1) of the Code;
- (c) The Company and the Reinsurer agree to exchange information pertaining to the amount of net consideration under this Agreement each year to ensure consistency or as otherwise required by the Code and applicable Treasury Regulations;
- (d) The first tax year for which this election is effective is 2013;
- (e) The Reinsurer will submit to the Company by May 15 each year its calculation of the amount of the net consideration for the preceding calendar year. This schedule of calculations will be accompanied by a statement that the Reinsurer will report such amount of net consideration in its tax return for the preceding calendar year;
- (f) The Company may contest such calculation by providing an alternative calculation to the Reinsurer in writing within thirty (30) days of the Company's receipt of the Reinsurer's calculation. If the Company does not so notify the Reinsurer, the Company will report the amount of net consideration as determined by the Reinsurer in the Company's tax return for the previous calendar year;
- (g) If the Company contests the Reinsurer's calculation of the amount of net consideration, the dispute shall be resolved in accordance with Section 11.2.

Both the Company and the Reinsurer are subject to U.S. taxation under Subchapter L of Chapter 1 of the Code.

ARTICLE IX
INSOLVENCY

Section 9.1 Insolvency. The reinsurance ceded hereunder shall be payable by the Reinsurer on the basis of liability of the Company under the Reinsured Policies without diminution because of the insolvency of the Company, directly to the Company or its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor, except where the Reinsurer, with the consent of the direct insured, has assumed the policy obligations of the Company as direct obligations of the Reinsurer to the payees under a Reinsured Policy and in substitution for the obligations of the Company to the payees. It is agreed and understood, however, that (i) in the event of the insolvency of the Company, the liquidator, receiver or statutory successor of the Company shall give the Reinsurer written notice of the pendency of a claim against the insolvent Company on a Reinsured Policy within a reasonable time after such claim is filed in the insolvency proceeding and (ii) during the pendency of such claim the Reinsurer may investigate such claim and interpose, at its own expense, in the proceeding where such claim is to be adjudicated any defenses which it deems available to the Company, its liquidator, receiver or statutory successor

Section 9.2 Expenses. It is further understood that any expense incurred by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 9.1 shall be chargeable, subject to court approval, against the insolvent Company as part of the expense of liquidation to the extent of a proportionate share of the benefit which may accrue to the Company solely as a result of the defense undertaken by the Reinsurer. Where two or more assuming reinsurers are involved in the same claim and a majority in interest elect to interpose defenses to such claim, the expense shall be apportioned in accordance with the terms of this Agreement as though such expense had been incurred by the Company.

ARTICLE X
TERMINATION

Section 10.1 Duration of Coinsurance. This Agreement will be effective as of the Effective Time. Subject to the provisions of this Article X, this Agreement will remain in effect, and the reinsurance provided hereunder will remain in force, until termination of the policy or policies on which the reinsurance is based (whether by expiration of the term thereof or by novation thereof by the Reinsurer or one of its Affiliates) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Except as provided in Section 10.3, the Reinsured Policies are not eligible for recapture by the Company.

Section 10.2 Termination. This Agreement shall terminate:

- (a) at any time upon the mutual written consent of the Parties hereto, which writing shall state the effective date of termination; or
- (b) automatically at such time as no liability remains under this Agreement.

Section 10.3 Termination by the Company. The Company, in its sole discretion, shall have the option to terminate this Agreement upon the occurrence of any one of the following events:

(a) the Reinsurer is placed in receivership, conservatorship, rehabilitation or liquidation by any insurance regulatory authority;

(b) the Reinsurer breaches Section 4.1, and the Reinsurer fails to cure such breach within the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice of such breach from the Company and (ii) the last day of the calendar year in which such breach occurs; provided that, in the case of clause (ii) only, the Company shall have no right to terminate with a cure period of fewer than thirty (30) days to the extent that the Company continues to receive full credit for the Trust Account in its risk-based capital calculation;

(c) the Reinsurer breaches Section 4.2, and the Reinsurer fails to cure such breach within the earlier of (i) thirty (30) days following receipt of written notice of such breach from the Company and (ii) the last day of the calendar quarter in which such breach occurs; provided that the Company shall have no right to terminate if the Reinsurer cannot take any action reasonably required for the Company to receive statutory reserve credit without the reasonable cooperation of the Company and the Company shall not have reasonably cooperated with the Reinsurer; provided, further, that it shall be deemed unreasonable to require the Company to cooperate in the event such cooperation would impose on the Company any cost and the Reinsurer has not agreed to be responsible for such cost;

(d) the Reinsurer fails to pay any material amount due to the Company under this Agreement and (i) such amount is not subject to a good faith dispute and (ii) such failure is not cured within ten (10) Business Days following the Reinsurer's receipt of written notice of such failure from the Company; or

(e) in the event that (i) the Reinsurer's RBC Ratio is less than 175% or (ii) the Reinsurer fails to provide its RBC Ratio in accordance with Section 4.3 and, upon delivery of written notice from the Company to the Reinsurer, the Reinsurer shall fail to provide its RBC Ratio within ten (10) Business Days following such notice.

Section 10.4 Termination by the Reinsurer. Upon the occurrence of a Reinsurer Termination Event, the Reinsurer shall have the right (but not the obligation) to terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the Company of its intent to terminate. Termination of this Agreement shall be effective on the date specified in such notice, provided that such date shall not be prior to the date on which the Termination Event occurred. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Section 10.4, the Company shall be deemed to have recaptured and reassumed all Reinsured Liabilities. Recapture of the Reinsured Policies shall be effective on the date specified in the notice of termination.

Section 10.5 Settlement Upon Termination. Upon the termination of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to Section 10.3 or by the Reinsurer pursuant to Section 10.4, subject to payment by the Reinsurer of any amounts due to the Company pursuant to this Section 10.5 and the payment by the Company of any amounts due to the Reinsurer pursuant to this Section 10.5, the Company shall recapture all liabilities previously ceded to the Reinsurer and the Reinsurer's liability under this Agreement will terminate (provided, that such termination shall not relieve any Party of any pre-termination breach of this Agreement). The Company shall prepare a Net Settlement report for the period commencing on the first day of the then-current calendar month and ending on the date this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 10.3 or 10.4. On the tenth Business Day following the delivery of such Net Settlement report (a) the applicable Party shall pay any amounts due and owing by such Party on such Net Settlement report; (b) the Reinsurer shall transfer to the Company cash and assets with an aggregate Fair Market Value equal to 100% of an amount equal to: (i) the Reinsurer's Share of the Statutory Reserves held by the Company with respect to the Reinsured Policies, plus (ii) the Reinsurer's Share of the Existing Interest Maintenance Reserve attributable to the Reinsured Liabilities, plus (iii) the amount of any new interest maintenance reserve created at the time of recapture as a result of such recapture divided by 65%, plus (iv) the amount of any New Interest Maintenance Reserve that remains unamortized as of the date of termination divided by 65%, plus (v) the amount of any New Amendment Interest Maintenance Reserve that remains unamortized as of the date of termination divided by 65%, minus (vi) the Reinsurer's Share of the amount of outstanding policy loans on the Reinsured Policies (to the extent such policy loans constitute admitted assets under SAP, net of any unearned policy loan interest on such loans but including amounts of interest due and accrued with respect thereto), minus (vii) the Reinsurer's Share of net due and deferred Premiums on the Reinsured Policies reduced by advances thereon, in each case, determined by the Company in accordance with SAP, consistently applied, as of the date of termination (such amount, the "Reinsurer Termination Payment"); and (c) the Company shall pay to the Reinsurer cash equal to the amount of any cash and assets withdrawn by the Company or any successor by operation of law, including any liquidator, rehabilitator, receiver or conservator of the Company, from the Trust Account prior to the date of termination, and not used to satisfy claims of policyholders under the Reinsured Policies prior to the date of termination or to otherwise pay amounts due to the Company pursuant to this Agreement (the "Company Termination Payment"). Any dispute by either Party of the Company Termination Payment or the Reinsurer Termination Payment shall be resolved in accordance with Section 11.2.

ARTICLE XI
RESOLUTION OF CERTAIN DISPUTES

Section 11.1 Disputes over Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium Calculations and SPA Adjusted Coinsurance Premium

(a) Within thirty (30) days following its receipt from the Company of the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, (such period, a "Review Period"), the Reinsurer shall either (i) notify the Company in writing of its agreement with the calculation of the Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium or SPA Adjusted Coinsurance Premium, as applicable, set forth therein ("Notice of Agreement"); or (ii) if the Company determines that the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, or the calculations reflected therein either (x) have not been prepared on the basis set forth in Section 2.3 or in Section 5.8 of the Purchase Agreement or (y) contain or reflect mathematical errors, inform the Company in writing of its objection (the "Reinsurer's Objection"), which notice shall set forth in reasonable detail a description of the basis of the Reinsurer's Objection and the adjustments to such Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, or the calculations reflected therein that the Reinsurer requests be made. The Company, as applicable, shall, following the Effective Date through the date that the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, becomes final in accordance with the last sentence of Section 11.1(c), take all actions necessary or desirable to maintain and preserve all accounting books, records, policies and procedures on which such Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or SPA Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, are based or on which the finalized Initial Coinsurance Premium Adjustment or SPA Coinsurance Premium Adjustment, as applicable, are to be based so as not to impede or delay the determination of the finalized Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium, the finalized SPA Adjusted Coinsurance Premium, the finalized Fair Market Value of the Reinsurance Assets as of the Effective Date, the finalized Statutory Book Value of the Initial Funds Withheld Assets as of the Effective Date or the preparation of the Reinsurer's Objection in the manner and utilizing the methods permitted by this Agreement. Upon receipt by the Company of a Notice of Agreement from the Reinsurer or if no Reinsurer's Objection is received by the Company prior to the expiration of the Review Period, the Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium, the SPA Adjusted Coinsurance Premium and the Reinsurer's calculation of the Initial Coinsurance Premium Adjustment (as set forth in the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement) and the SPA Coinsurance Premium Adjustment (as set forth in the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement) shall be deemed to have been accepted by the Reinsurer and will become final and binding upon the Parties in accordance with the last sentence of Section 11.1(c).

(b) If the Reinsurer timely delivers a Reinsurer's Objection to the Company, the Company shall have thirty (30) days from the date of such delivery to review and respond to such Reinsurer's Objection (the "Consultation Period"). The Parties shall use reasonable, good faith efforts to resolve any disagreements that they may have with respect to the matters set forth in the Reinsurer's Objection. If the Parties are unable to resolve all of their disagreements with respect to the matters set forth in the Reinsurer's Objection within ten (10) Business Days following the expiration of the Consultation Period, then the Parties shall submit all matters that remain in dispute with respect to the Reinsurer's Objection (along with a copy of the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement and the Company's calculation of the amounts set forth therein, marked to indicate those line items that are still in dispute) to an independent internationally recognized accounting firm of independent certified public accountants with appropriate actuarial expertise mutually agreed by the Parties (the "CPA Firm"), which shall, acting as an expert and not as an arbitrator, make a final determination, on the basis of the standards set forth in Section 2.3 hereof, and only with respect to any remaining differences submitted to the CPA Firm, in accordance with this Section 11.1(b), of the appropriate amount of each line item in the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement and the Company's calculation of the amounts set forth therein as to which the Parties disagree (such items that remain in dispute, the "Unresolved Items").

(c) The Parties shall instruct the CPA Firm to deliver its written determination to the Reinsurer and the Company no later than fifteen Business Days after the Unresolved Items are referred to the CPA Firm. The CPA Firm's determination shall include a certification that it reached such determination in accordance with this Section 11.1(c) and shall be conclusive and binding upon the Parties, absent fraud or clear and manifest error. With respect to each Unresolved Item, the CPA Firm's determination, if not in accordance with the position of either the Company or the Reinsurer, shall not be more favorable to the Reinsurer than the amounts advocated by the Reinsurer in the Reinsurer's Objection or more favorable to the Company than the amounts advocated by the Company in the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the Company's calculations of the amounts set forth therein with respect to such disputed line item and/or calculation. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the CPA Firm's review of the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement and the Company's calculation of the amounts set forth therein shall be limited to a determination of whether such documents and calculations were prepared in accordance with Section 2.3, and (ii) the CPA Firm shall not review any line items or make any determination with respect to any matters other than the Unresolved Items that were referred to the CPA Firm for resolution pursuant to this Section 11.1(c). The determination of the amounts set forth in the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, that are final and binding on the Parties, as determined either through (1) the Reinsurer's delivery of a Notice of Agreement pursuant to Section 11.1(a), (2) the Reinsurer's failure to deliver Reinsurer's Objection prior to expiration of the Review Period pursuant to Section 11.1(a), (3) agreement by the Parties during the Consultation Period or (4) the determination of the CPA Firm pursuant to this Section 11.1(c) are referred to herein as the "finalized Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium," the "finalized Initial Coinsurance Premium Adjustment," the "finalized Fair Market Value of the Transferred Assets as of the Effective Date," the "finalized Statutory Book Value of the Initial Funds Withheld Assets as of the Effective Date," the "finalized SPA Adjusted Coinsurance Premium," and the "finalized SPA Coinsurance Premium Adjustment" as the case may be.

(d) The Parties agree that judgment may be entered upon the CPA Firm's determination in any court having jurisdiction over the Reinsurer or the Company or their respective assets, as the case may be. The fees and disbursements of the CPA Firm shall be paid by the Parties in proportion to those matters submitted to the CPA Firm that are resolved against that Party, as such fees and disbursements are allocated by the CPA Firm in accordance with this Section 11.1 at the time of the CPA Firm's determination. At any time following delivery of the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, as applicable, the Reinsurer shall provide to the Company and its Representatives full access to books and records and other information with respect to the Reinsured Policies and the Net Retained Liabilities, including work papers of its accountants (subject to execution by the Company and/or its Representatives, as applicable, of a customary hold-harmless agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to such accountants), and to any employees during regular business hours and on reasonable advance notice, to the extent necessary for the Company to prepare the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement or to prepare materials for presentation to the CPA Firm. The Parties shall make readily available to the CPA Firm, during regular business hours and on reasonable advance notice, interviews with such employees, and all relevant information, books and records and any work papers of their respective accountants (in each case, subject to execution by the CPA Firm of a customary hold-harmless agreement in form and substance reasonably acceptable to such accountants) relating to the Initial Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement, the SPA Coinsurance Premium Reconciliation Statement and any Unresolved Items and all other items reasonably required by the CPA Firm to fulfill its obligations under Section 11.1(c). In acting under this Section 11.2, the CPA Firm will be entitled to the privileges and immunities of an arbitrator.

(e) For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 11.1 shall not apply to any dispute between the Parties with respect to the interpretation of any provision, term or condition of this Agreement.

Section 11.2 Disputes over Calculations. After the Effective Date, any dispute between the Parties with respect to the calculation of amounts that are to be calculated or reported pursuant to this Agreement (other than disputes with respect to the Actual Initial Coinsurance Premium and the SPA Adjusted Initial Coinsurance Premium, which shall be resolved in accordance with Section 11.1 hereof), including disputes with respect to any Net Settlement, calculations relating to DAC tax, valuation of the assets held in the Trust Account or the amount of the Reinsurer Termination Payment or the Company Termination Payment, that cannot be resolved by the Parties within sixty (60) calendar days, shall be referred to an independent accounting firm of national recognized standing (which shall not have any material relationship with the Reinsurer or the Company) mutually agreed to by the Parties; provided, however, that where the dispute involves an actuarial issue, the dispute shall instead be referred to an independent actuarial firm of national recognized standing (which shall not have any material relationship with the Reinsurer or the Company) mutually agreed to by the Parties. Within twenty (20) Business Days following the selection of the accounting firm or actuarial firm, as applicable, the Parties shall submit their positions and supporting documentation to such accounting firm or actuarial firm. Within forty (40) Business Days of such submission, the accounting firm or actuarial firm, as applicable, shall, in light of the evidence provided by both Parties, determine the calculations in dispute within the range of difference between the Reinsurer's position thereto and the Company's position thereto. There shall be no appeal from the decision made by such firm, which shall be final and binding (absent fraud or clear and manifest error), except that, either Party may petition a court having jurisdiction over the other Party or its assets to reduce the arbitrator's decision to judgment. The fees charged by the accounting firm or actuarial firm, as applicable, to resolve the dispute shall be allocated between the Company and the Reinsurer by such firm in accordance with its judgment as to the relative merits of the Parties' positions in respect of the dispute. For the avoidance of doubt, this Section 11.2 shall not apply to any dispute between the Parties with respect to the interpretation of any provision, term or condition of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XII INDEMNIFICATION

Section 12.1 Indemnification of the Reinsurer by the Company. From and after the Effective Date, the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Reinsurer and its officers, directors and authorized Representatives (the "Reinsurer Indemnified Parties") from and against, and pay and reimburse the Reinsurer Indemnified Parties for, all Losses imposed on, sustained, incurred or suffered by, or asserted against, the Reinsurer Indemnified Parties (a) solely as a result of actions or omissions of the Company, but only to the extent such actions or omissions of the Company constitute gross negligence or bad faith and were not taken or omitted at the direction of the Reinsurer or consented to by the Reinsurer or (b) arising out of any breach or nonfulfillment by the Company of, or any failure by the Company to perform, any of the covenants, terms or conditions of or any of its duties or obligations under this Agreement unless such breach, nonfulfillment or failure arises out of or results from the action or omission of the Reinsurer pursuant to the Administrative Services Agreement; provided, however, that the Company shall have no obligation to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Reinsurer Indemnified Parties for any Reinsured Liabilities.

Section 12.2 Indemnification of the Company by the Reinsurer. ARTICLE XV GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 15.1 Errors and Omissions. If any delay, omission, error or failure to pay amounts due or to perform any other act required by this Agreement is caused by mistake, misunderstanding or oversight, the Parties will equitably adjust the situation to what it would have been had the mistake, misunderstanding or oversight not occurred, and the reinsurance provided hereunder will not be invalidated. Should it not be possible to adjust the situation, it will be resolved in accordance with dispute resolution procedures mutually selected by the Parties.

Section 15.2 Offset and Recoupment. The Company or the Reinsurer may offset or recoup any undisputed balance or amount due from one Party to the other Party under this Agreement; provided, that in the event of the insolvency of the Company, offsets shall only be allowed in accordance with New York Insurance Law Section 7427. The right of setoff shall not be affected or diminished because of the insolvency of either Party.

Section 15.3 Expenses. Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement each Party shall bear its own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Section 15.4 Parties to this Agreement. This is an agreement for indemnity reinsurance solely between the Company and the Reinsurer. The performance of the obligations of each Party under this Agreement shall be rendered solely to the other Party. The acceptance of risks under this Agreement shall create no right or legal relationship between the Reinsurer and the insured, owner or beneficiary of any insurance policy or other contract of the Company.

Section 15.5 Authority. Neither the Company nor the Reinsurer shall have any power or authority to act for or on behalf of the other except as expressly granted herein or in the Administrative Services Agreement or Transition Services Agreement, and no other or greater power or authority shall be implied by the grant or denial of power or authority specifically mentioned herein. No employee or agent of either Party shall be considered an employee or agent of the other.

Section 15.6 No Assignment. This Agreement may not be assigned by either of the Parties hereto without the prior written approval of the other Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Reinsurer shall not be prohibited from further transfer of risks accepted hereunder on a retrocession or other basis without the prior approval of the Company; provided that any transfer shall not relieve the Reinsurer of its obligations under this Agreement.

Section 15.15 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed simultaneously in any number of counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which will constitute one and the same instrument.

Section 15.16 No Prejudice. The Parties agree that this Agreement has been jointly negotiated and drafted by the Parties hereto and that the terms hereof shall not be construed in favor of or against any Party on account of its participation in such negotiations and drafting.

Section 15.17 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Enforcement.
